

Secretariat Question

Include an explanation of your interest/passion in the top three choice Secretariat Department and their international concerns (e.g. if your #1 choice was High Commissioner for Human Rights, answer the question "Why Human Rights?") should be 1/2 page to a page in length
In these responses, include a demonstration of your knowledge of this Department's concerns, including which concerns you feel are the most important

Security Council Question

Please provide at least one paragraph of explanation of your interest/passion in each of your top three country choices, with a particular emphasis on its international concerns, and which concerns you feel are the most important.

Applications will be scored by the amount of interest each applicant shows followed by clarity and quality of writing and knowledge of international issues. Please note that the P5 (China, France, Russian Federation, UK and USA) have extensive responsibilities within the Security Council. Applicants should expect to conduct extensive research and be knowledgeable about international affairs.

Candidate Application Questions

Application Question 1 (300 word max)

How do you (or how will you) embody the concept of servant leadership?

Application Question 2 (300 word max)

1. If you are applying for General Assembly Liaison: On a lunch break, a group of delegates come up to you to complain about the Vice Presidents in your GA. How do you handle this conversation?
2. If you are applying for Security Council Liaison: You are retrieving a group to present before the Security Council. They are a group of freshmen, who seem terrified at the prospect of presenting - how do you handle this situation? What advice will you give them?
